

POINTS TO PONDER

- As long as you can stand being sick, then you will be sick. As long as you can tolerate or live with it, you will. You need to reach a place where you say, “I’m sick and tired of being sick and tired, and I’ve had all of this I’m going to take.”
- Satan has many ways he comes and steals from you, but one of them is through sickness. If you’re living in sin, and if you recognize that you’re living in sin, stop it.
- If God only healed people who were worthy, none of us would get healed.
- If you are living in sin, you are just giving Satan freedom to steal, kill, and destroy through many different avenues, and one of them is sickness.
- If you are yielding yourself to sin, you are yielding yourself to Satan, the one who authored that sin, the one who tempted you and drew you into it. You have given him the right to oppress you.
- Until you quit cooperating with the devil and giving Satan place in your life, you’re going to be ineffective at getting rid of the resulting sickness. If you do get rid of the sickness and receive healing, he will be able to try and enter back in—and it’ll be seven times worse—unless you’ve stopped the sin.
- If you know that there is something you’re doing in the natural that is causing you problems, then quit doing it.
- If you are speaking forth your faith and taking your authority, I believe it can be like a force field around you that can keep evil things from coming.
- Sometimes you just weren’t walking in the blessing and the defense of the Lord the way you should, so it’s just a demonic attack.
- All sickness is from the devil. There was no sickness until sin entered the earth.
- Many people ignore the fact that a lot of sickness is just demonic attacks against them. They’re trying to go to the doctor to find some physical way of dealing with a spiritual problem.
- God wants you to be well more than you want to be well! If you will pray and open your heart up with humility, accept if the Lord tells you that there’s something you’re doing wrong, and then follow His direction, you will receive from Him.

- If you're living in sin, stop it. If you're doing something in the natural that's causing these problems in your body, stop it.
- If it's a spiritual attack, you aren't going to be able to deal with it in some physical, natural way. You need to deal with it spiritually by taking your authority and fighting against it.
