Self-Examination Questions

Of the spirit, soul, and body, which of these do you listen to the most and why? Should any changes be made? If so, why?

Do you spend more time speaking to God about your problem or to your problem about God? Do you desire this to change, and how can you implement change in this area?

Personalize Andrew's Closing Prayer

Father, thank You for the gift of Your Spirit now living inside of me. I am now a complete believer full of the power of God. Thank You that as I renew my mind, the knowledge of who I really am because of You is released. With this renewed mind, I now agree with the finished work of the cross over my physical body. I am not the sick trying to be healed. I now release the perfect healing power and life of the Spirit into my body. I will see myself now from the place of victory and a position of "It is finished." So I now praise You for what I see and feel—and speak the life of who I am in the Spirit. Lord, I receive these truths as my new identity and reality! I no longer battle for what is mine. I speak this out with authority and praise, for it is mine in Jesus' name! Amen!

Action Steps

- In your Healing University journal, draw a visual illustration of a pipe with a faucet valve in the middle of the pipe. Label the parts: spirit, soul, and body. Around your illustration add an explanation and scriptures to explain what is happening in regard to healing.
- Settle in your heart that the same power that raised Christ from the dead is already inside of you. Examine your heart and when you are ready, make the following declaration and don't waver from it:

I believe that in my spirit I already have healing, and I will tell that to my body and soul.
