Self-Examination Questions

Were you ever ministered to as a child? If so, how did the situation impact you?

How do you honestly feel about ministering to children? What will help move you to a place where you feel comfortable or eager to minister to children?

Are there children you know who need ministry? What is stopping you from ministering to them?

Prayer Points

Use these prayer points to write and pray your own powerful prayer:

- Thank God that you are His child and that He is your Father.
- Thank God for anointing you to minister to children.
- Ask God to teach you to minister to children.
- Ask God to fill you with love to see the children as He sees them.
- Rebuke the fear of ministering to children.
- Praise God that you can minister to children with confidence and joy.
- Ask God for opportunities to minister to children.

Action Steps

- In your Healing University journal, write down the places or events where you are around children and could minister to them. Then read Matthew 19:13–15 about how children were brought to Jesus to lay hands on them and pray for them. In your mind, picture Jesus at those places and events that you wrote down and see Him ministering to the children. Write down what words you think He might say to the children and how He would convey His love to them. You are Jesus's minister to these kids, and He will be with you. Jot down a prayer, or your thoughts about what you feel Jesus wants to say and do through you to share His love and healing with the children.
- Settle in your heart that healing is for everyone, whatever age they are, and God has enabled you to minister to children because you are a child of God and have the Spirit of God inside of you. Examine your heart and, when you are ready, make the following declaration and don't waver from it:

I believe that healing is for children, and I am anointed to minister to children because I'm a child of God and filled with the Holy Spirit.
