

POINTS TO PONDER

- Faith works in our lives when we understand we're loved.
- F. F. Bosworth, who wrote Christ the Healer says, "It's not what God can do, but what we know He yearns to do that inspires faith."
- Take a chill pill and rest in the fact that God loves you. He cares about you. He wants your child healed. He wants you healed. He loves you. He has compassion for you, and He's already provided healing for you. If there is anything you need to know, if there is anything you need to do, the Lord's going to show it to you.
- God's no respecter of persons. He's not going to get healing to you because you know you're some super-duper person, or you live right, or you do everything right. He loves you. You're His child.
- Ken Blue, who wrote The Authority to Heal, said, "Saturating our minds with the truth of God's unconditional love will do more to create a healing environment than anything else we can do."
- Focus on the scriptures that talk about God's love for you; it is a boost to your faith.
- Your body will line up with whatever picture you have on the inside.
- God said, "I don't want you to trust in a principle that I led you to do the last time you received from Me. I want you to look to Me, and I'll show you if there is anything you need to do."
- If you'll focus on the Lord and on His Word, your vision will change.
- Get your focus in the right place through giving attention to the Word, and the King of Glory, who's already on the inside of you, will manifest in your soul and physical body.
- Whoever will behold, inspect, perceive, and consider what Jesus has accomplished through the finished work of the cross will live.
- Get your eyes off the calendar or the clock. Get your eyes off of the pain, the sickness and disease, and how long it's been. Get your eyes off of the condition of the way and get your focus on the Maker of the way. The Maker of the way will change the condition of your way.
- Once you experience a spiritual victory and receive your healing, the devil will be back. That's not to fear. You need to understand. You need to be ready for him. He's a creature of pride, and whenever he comes and you defeat him with the Word, he will think twice about coming back to your house. He's after the Word. Don't let the Word go. When he comes to steal it, stick him with it.

- If the devil knocks on your door, let faith, Jesus, and the Word of God answer him. "It is written, by His stripes I'm healed. It is written, I've got authority over you. I rebuke you!" Then watch him flee.
- In his book, How to Keep Your Healing, Kenneth Hagin wrote, "Yes, the devil will try to put things back on you. But if the Word of God has been built into your heart, if you've meditated upon it long enough, fed on it, put it into your heart until you know it's become a part of you, your inner consciousness, you can put the devil on the run every time. If temptation comes, if pain comes, instead of being afraid and panicking and submitting to that, just start laughing, ha-ha, ha-ha, ha-ha."
