

LESSON REVIEW
ANSWERS

1. According to Acts 26:18, why is it important for you to hear from God?

Possible answers: You can share a word with others that carries the Spirit of God so they can turn from darkness to light; the revelation you receive can help others find forgiveness of sins and faith in God.

2. What is the difference between revelation and understanding?

Revelation takes place in the spirit of man; understanding comes to the mind of man. Revelation is not the same as understanding, though they can work together. Understanding can take place in your head long before revelation takes place in your spirit, and vice versa.

3. According to Matthew 4:4, why is it important to continually hear from God?

Matthew 4:4 shows that we need to keep getting new revelation from the Word of God because we can't live by bread alone.

4. How does revelation affect healing?

Possible answers: Revelation knowledge makes healing happen because the word given resonates with and quickens the afflicted person; the revelation propels you to live differently, and healing is yours to receive and give; in the New Testament, healing came when people had revelation of Jesus's authority, power, identity, compassion, and anointing.

5. How can you hear God more effectively?

Possible answers: I can hear God more effectively when I create an environment where I hear God and spend time with Him; I can pray and expect God to give me a revelation; I can ask God to show me a revelation of His nature, my identity in Him, and His will for my life; I can seek spiritual quickening by meditating on His Word.
