

POINTS TO PONDER

- I'd rather teach somebody the Word and then let faith come and hold onto the Word. There are many people who you won't have any opportunity to minister the Word to, but you can stop and pray for them and allow the gifts to operate and flow through you. You can see deliverance, healing, and freedom.
- While Jesus was taking time to draw on the ground, He was taking time to draw on the Father for wisdom. As we make ourselves available to the Holy Spirit, He will impart wisdom to us (John 8:1-11).
- There are nine gifts of the Holy Spirit. Which one's the best? The one that's needed most. How will you know which gift is needed most? You have to make yourself available and listen to Him.
- Spend time with the Father. Make yourself constantly present and available to Him. You could say, "God, what do You want to do today? Who can I touch today? Who can I bless today? How can I manifest Your heart to someone today?" God can use that kind of person so that the gifts will operate in an effective way.
- If you don't make yourself available and make it your goal every day to be a blessing to someone else, you're not going to hear from God.
- When God brings somebody's face before you, begin to pray for them. Call them on the phone and reach out to them. Do that and watch and see how the gifts will operate in your life.
- How do the gifts of the Spirit happen? We have to be available to the Holy Spirit, listen to Him, follow the impressions we get, and stop being so self-absorbed.
- Most of the time, when we move out into the gifts, it's very low risk.
- The biggest mistake that we can make is failing to move out when the Spirit of God is prompting us.
- When you find out what love will do, wisdom will be there—Solomon knew that principle.
- If you have all Word and no Spirit, you're going to dry up. If you have all Spirit and no Word, you're going to blow up. If you have the Word and the Spirit, you're going to grow up.

- Bobby Crow said, “The Holy Spirit moves where He has least resistance.” So, He’s looking for people who will just follow, who will yield to Him and follow the different flows of the Spirit.
- If you follow the flow of love, there are many people in your life who God will heal, save, deliver, and set free through you.
