Self-Examination Questions

What emotions do you have as you think about yourself ministering to others?

Have you encountered or seen any of the problems mentioned in this lesson?

What do you think will be the most rewarding thing about ministering to others?

Prayer Points

Use these prayer points to write and to pray your own powerful prayer:

- Thank God for healing.
- Thank God for leading you to the place where you are willing to minister.
- Ask God to activate His Word in you to go out and minister.
- Declare that you will speak and minister in boldness.
- Commit to stepping out of your comfort zone to minister.
- Rebuke fear.
- Denounce the lies of the enemy.
- Praise God for the Holy Spirit in you leading you.
- Ask God to stir up the gifts of the Spirit in you.
- Thank God that His power will flow through you.
- Thank God that faith is rising up in you.
- Thank God that He will work through you to minister to people.

Action Steps

- In your Healing University journal, write down your hopes and dreams for yourself as you minister to others. Visualize yourself laying hands on and praying for people. Think about how you will be ministering as you pray for your 1st, 50th, and 100th person. Write down what will help you minister. Write down some of the tips that you want to really focus on knowing and practicing.
- Settle in your heart that the enemy may try to scare you, but you can apply what you've learned with confidence in God and boldly speak what His Word and His promises say. Examine your heart and, when you are ready, make the following declaration and don't waver from it:

I believe that the enemy may try to scare me, but I will apply what I've learned with confidence in God and boldly speak what His Word and His promises say.

_____ (sign and date)

- Write your own answer to this question: How does someone get activated to minister?
