

POINTS TO PONDER

- It's one thing to know that it's God's will to heal, but then you have to see yourself as a channel for God to flow through. Satan can't stop God from doing anything. His weapon is us against ourselves. He gets us doubting that God will use us, doubting that we are qualified. The truth is that, in yourself, you aren't qualified. The good news is that Jesus flows through us in spite of who we are, not because of who we are.
- God has never had anybody qualified working for Him yet. Start being bold in talking about what God can do and get people's attention upon God and not upon yourself.
- One of the questions that we deal with is, "Why isn't everybody healed?" Well, there are multiple reasons, but one reason is because God gave that power to us. If we aren't taking our power and authority and using it, it's not God who's not healing people today. It's God's people who aren't using what He gave them.
- Most Christians say, "Oh, God, we are nothing, we have nothing, and we can do nothing, but we know that You can do all things. Would You stretch forth Your hand and touch this person?" You aren't going to get a person healed praying like that.
- You cannot just pray and say, "Oh God, would you please heal this person?" That's safe praying, because if nothing happens, you can rationalize that God must not have wanted them to be healed. No, that's not true. God does want them to be healed. But you can pray that way, and if they do get healed, you say, "Well, praise God, it must've been His will." But no, God gave you this power, and it is always His will for people to be healed.
- By His stripes, you were healed. He's already done it, and He's put that power on the inside of you. It's not making God do anything. It's dealing with unbelief.
- "I've got raising-from-the-dead power on the inside of me. Yes, I've got the power to see blind eyes healed. Yes, I've got the power to heal." Most people wouldn't say things like that because they'd be worried about what people might think. They would be thinking that people would perceive them as self-promoting or claiming that it's some virtue of their own.
- When you do this, people are going to criticize you and say, "So, you're saying that you're the power source?" That's not what you are saying, but people are going to misunderstand. However, don't try and defend yourself. Just minister healing and recognize that God has given you the authority.

- One of the drawbacks to getting healed through somebody else's faith is that, because your faith is not mature, Satan can come back and steal the healing from you.
- You have the name of Jesus, and you have faith in His name, so you can do this. You can do it. You have that power. This is nonnegotiable.
- God has committed healing power to you. You have it on the inside of you. The anointing of God abides on the inside of you and is always there.
- Instead of approaching a situation of sickness as a beggar, you'll come in and you'll start taking your authority and commanding the power of God.
- God said you have power in your tongue. Start taking the Word of God and speaking to your problem. Command these sicknesses to leave. Take your authority and demand that the devil leaves. Break that demonic hold over them. It's up to you. It's not your power. It's God's power, but it's at your command.
- If you just follow the way that it's been done for years and ask God to do it, you aren't going to see the power of God manifest through you. You have to recognize that God has placed the power on the inside of you and begin to use it.
